

From the M5 J19,

Take the A369 towards Bristol and Clifton.

Take the first turning on the left signed towards Pill.

Follow this road for approx 1/2 mile.

Immediately after a petrol station on the right, turn first right into The Old Brewery, Lodway Business Centre

Turning into the gates of the business park, follow the road to the end.

The Old Fire Station stands alone at the rear of this business development.

From Bristol City Centre (Via Clifton Suspension Bridge or Rownham Hill)

Take the A369 signed to the M5 and Portishead.

Follow this road for 3 1/2 miles. Take the first right turn signposted to Ham Green and Pill, just a short distance before you reach the Motorway. (If you miss this turn take the second turning to Pill and follow the directions given above.)

Turning into the gates of the business park, follow the road to the end.

The Old Fire Station stands alone at the rear of this business development.
